WAS ONCE COMMITTED TO INSANE ASYLUM

Cut Off Husband, It is Alleged for Sending Her There, and Rewarded Lawyer Who Obtained Her Freedom.

Claiming that the reason of his wife, in H. Egan, had been long unseated the result of dissipation when she made her will, Dec. 16, 1902, cutting him with a bequest of $5, James Egan, liver-haired septuagenarian, formerly he distillery business at No. 867 Sevevenue, is contesting the will by ch she left $5,000 each to her attorex-Judge Henry W. Leonard, his Finer, Thomas W. Tyng, and his son, arry P. Leonard, and made the latter duary legatee of her $100,000 estate. fr. Egan, who is himself a half-lilonaire, is joined in the contest by . Egan's sister, Mary Ann Bergen. Darron, Queens County, Ireland, to Sale of se that the elder Leonard exerundue influence over Mrs. Egan, will was executed in his office, No.

Had Been Sent to Asylum. Mrs. Egan was the woman who sued Sameses, growing out of her committee to the Long Island Home for the mane, at Amityville, L. I., and in her fanuary 6 & 2 she gives as her reason for leaving to Judge Leonard that he secured liberation from the asylum. The ists stoutly aserted in their answer her suit, which was never tried, that was undoubtedly insane at the died April 14 last, and her husband had receaved letters of administration on her estate when it was accidentally discovered that she had filed a will with the Surrogate for rafe keeping.

This is the will under contest before Surrogate Thomas to-day. David Mc-Clure and ex-fudge Jorolamon appear for the contestants and N. W. Kerngood for the will.

The subscribing witnesses to the will was examined to-day. They are Dr. William J. Bullman. of No. 248 West One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street; L. Schnadig and H. Lewis Borert.

Dr. Bullman had only a faint recollection of the signing of the will, but identified his signature.

Mr. Bogert testified that he believed Mrs. Egan's mind was clear, but she was so excitable that he didn't dare speak to her for fear she would fly with a rage.

It is alleged by the contestants that Mrs. Egan's arrest and commitment to the asylum was the culmination of a ong debauch.

NEWARK HAS MYSTERY IN STRANGE MAN'S DEATH.

The police of Newark, N. J., are try. ng to solve the mystery of the death of an unknown man who was found of the house at No. 317 South Eleventh street. unconscious yesterday under the stoop

The man was about twenty-four years id. He was clad only in trousers, shoes, undershirt and outing shirt. Joseph Korn, a driver, discovered the stranger and had him carried into the stranger and had him carried into the house in front of which he found him. Restoratives were applied and a physician summoned, but the man died without regaining coneciousness.

Only one wound, a slight one on the head, was found, and no one could identify him. On the breast was a tattooed emblem of the Cuban-American Alliance and on the right arm were the initials "G. B."

Qured by DR. BULL'S COUCH SYRUP.

Thousands of Prominent Men Tesof this Famous Remedy.

Lose no time when you have contracted a cold or cough, bronchitis, grippe, etc. These are the forerunners of pneumonia, asthma and consumption. Get a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at once, and cure yourself before these malignant affections take hold of your throat and lungs and become incurable. No other remedy is capable of performing so marvelously thorough cures as Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Avoided Consumption. "I had bronchitis and grip every year until I began using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup which cured me after two doctors failed. Now I know the value of this remedy, and keep it on hand always to break up coughs and colds at once. It will always cure influenza and sore throat. I have been using

for ten years, and even one dose taken in time will break up the worst cold." Mrs. A. C. Stees, 522 E. 65th St., Chicago, Ills.

Refuse the Substitute.

There are some druggists greedy of gain who will always try to sell you "their own" tar or white pine mixture as a substitute for Dr. Bull's mixture as a substitute for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup if you give them the chance. Be wise, ask for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and insist on getting it, and you will receive the best medicine sold and one which will positively cure. Sold by all druggists.
